Attendance of museums and galleries
Nowadays more and more people ~~used~~ ~~to~~ visit museums and galleries. I have collected some information about English museums and galleries and now I want to share it with you.

People's attendance of museums and galleries is increasing. In 2013 there were only 13,7 mln visitors in England, in 2015 - only 14,2 mln, but in 2017 - 16,1 mln visitors.

People don't like admission charges. In 2014 ^{the} Natural History Museum and ^{the} Science
Museum introduced admission charges.
After this they haven't been the most popular museums any ~~more~~ longer.

Let's compare ^{the} Tate Gallery and ^{the} Science Museum. As I've said, the Science Museum was the most popular museum in 2013.
That year 3,8 million people appealed it.
and only 0,9 mln people visited ^{the} Tate Gallery. Two years later the situation wasn't the same: the Tate Gallery had about 1,9 mln visitors, the Science Museum - only 1,3 mln.

Now let's compare ^{the} British Museum and the National Gallery. In 2013, in 2015, in 2017 they had nearly the same number of visits ^{or}. And now both of them are interesting for tourists.

I would like to give some recommendations to the museum boards of directors what could be done to ⁽¹⁰⁰⁾ increase people's attendance of museums and galleries. ~~At~~ first, the staff should ask visitors what they like in the museum, what they don't like, what they would like to see, etc. In other words, visitors should rate ✓ museum. ~~At~~ secondly ✓ museums and galleries sometimes can make exhibitions, show something new, unusual. Interesting exhibits will attract tourists.

Personally, I like to visit museums and galleries. I want you to visit them too.
